NYMEX Natural Gas

This release will add the first 12 futures contract months for NYMEX Natural Gas to the Fastmarkets Dashboard. These futures are also known as NYMEX Henry Hub Natural Gas. Please note this is not the full forward curve out to 12 years.

These new futures are available in the Historic Price Table, Price Chart and Single Price tile widgets providing an end of day Settlement price. The Multi Price Table widget displays the bid, ask, last, close, settlement and volume.

These futures are available only as rolling contracts – they will roll each month automatically, never expire and always show the latest continuous month eg. front month, second month.
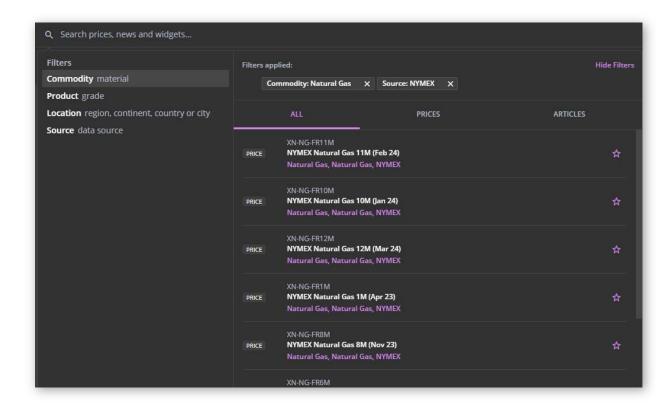

The data is available free of charge with a 10 minute delay to all Platform clients. For those who would like to view live prices, please contact your Account Manager.

FX and precious spot rates closing prices

The new FX and precious spot close fields will display the latest and historical FX rates which correspond to the same FX rate used for currency conversion functionality in the Dashboard or provide a rate to correspond with the end of the European FX trading day.

In a Multi Price Table widget it will display the live FX prices alongside a choice of two different synthetic closing price fields:

- Close Bid - rate taken at or as close to 00:00 UTC & Close Date - associated with the Close Bid field.
